Protest to Be Submitted to the Commissioners To-Day.

Indignation at the Proposed Legislative Investigation.

Rapid transit matters will probably assume an interesting phase this afternoon, at the meeting of the commissioners, when the propositions submitted by the Manhattan Company at the last meeting will come up for discussion.

A committee of citizens composed of such men as ex-Mayor Hewitt, Orlando B. Potter, A. W. Leister, Hugh S.
Camp, J. Rhinelander Dillon, James L.
Wells, ex-Mayor Franklin Edson, Kilian Van Rensselaer, S. Van Rensselaer Cru-ger, Fordham Morris, A. R. Conkling and Ernest Hall have signed resolutions protesting against the construction of the elevated road on Broadway and the Boulevard, which will be presented to the Board, together with protests from many property-owners along the proposed route.

The series of resolutions introduced in the Assembly at Albany last night asking for the appointment of a special legislative committee to investigate the Rapid Transit Commission, in view of the rumors about that the commissioners have been acting in the interests of the Manhattan Company, and although has aroused considerable indignation among the members of the Board.

Commissioner Spencer said this morning that the transactions of the commissioners have been open to public view and that the records and proceedings were at the disposal of any one who wished to examine them.

For one, he had no objection to any investigation that might be made except that it should be made at the same time, which was too valuable to be wasted.

The Chadwick Civic Club is getting up a petition to be held at "Clarendon Hall on the evening of Feb. 3, to discuss rapid transit matters, and propose the encroachments of the Elevated road.

Henry Iden Swears that Edward Burns Lived on His Stealing.

When Henry Iden, a grocer's clerk, was hypnotized by a doctor at the Flatbush station, he swore that Edward Burns, a well-known thief, lived on his stealing.

The doctor, who was a well-known hypnotist, said that he had hypnotized

KNOCKING OUT THE SKATERS.

Farmer Dunn Says the Mercury Is Bound to Rise.

Prophet Do Ve Comes to the Front With a Hot Summer.

This was the warmest winter since Jan. 2, and Farmer Dunn said the mercury in his official thermometer would crawl up the scale even further this afternoon and to-morrow.

There is still plenty of ice on the lakes and ponds, but the boys and girls who do not regard such as a reason for not enjoying themselves, have made the surface as rough as a farmer's newly-ploughed field.

In New York and vicinity it is cloudy and just a trifle dismal, but even with these slight imperfections, Eastern people are not enjoying themselves, have made the surface as rough as a farmer's newly-ploughed field.

It is very cloudy along the coast, but there are light winds which serve to drive the mist away and relieve the dullness.

About the only big city in the country where the weather is not so disagreeable is Chicago, where the temperature is hovering around 40 degrees.

At St. Louis it was 32 degrees above zero, and at Key West, the temperature was 70 degrees.

Do Ve, the New Jersey prophet, has said that the weather will be just what the country needs.

CHANGES AT THE THEATRES.

"My Official Wife's" Metropolitan Debut at the Standard.

Plays New and Old at Other Amusement Halls.

"My Official Wife," a play by Archibald Gunter, made from Col. R. H. Savage's novel, had its first metropolitan hearing last night at the Standard Theatre before a very large audience. It served to present as a star Miss Kathleen McKim, an actress who has made a name for herself during her brief stage career. Her husband, Robert L. Cutting, Jr., also had a part in this play, and the company included some well-known people. A review of "My Official Wife" will appear in "The Evening World" during the week.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.
"Jane," of which New York has seen so much, was presented last night at the Grand Opera-house, with Miss Johnstone Bennett in the leading role. It lacked the inducement of Lottie Collins, but it went well for all that, and the cast was good. George W. Leslie, E. P.
Cotton, J. J. McQuinn, C. H. Ross, Sennie Edwards, Joseph Totten, Maggie Holloway-Fisher, Georgia Gardner, Dottie Le Baron and Carrie Reynolds. There was a large audience.

HARLEM OPERA-HOUSE.
"The Isle of Champagne," with all the glory of a French production, began at the Harlem Opera-house last night.
The production was just the same as that seen at the Manhattan. Thomas G. Seabrook played the part of the king, and the audience laughed at his quaint work. The piece looked very well on the stage, and the cast was good. "The Isle of Champagne" will stay two weeks in Harlem.

NILLO'S GARDEN.
A war drama called "Nillo," new to this city, was acted last night at Nillo's Garden.
The play was a war drama, and the cast was good. The piece looked very well on the stage, and the audience laughed at his quaint work.

There was a capital boxing entertainment at the Varuna club-house in Brooklyn last night, and the stellar attraction in the pugilistic line was the bout between Jack Lynch and Billy Vernon. The bout was a good one, and the audience was entertained.

SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES.

A. A. U.'s Annual Meeting May Be Held in Boston This Year.

Billy Vernon Beated Jake Fitz in Rattling Shape.

In less than a month the annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union will be held, and it hasn't yet been decided just where the delegates to the convention will assemble.
It was intended to hold the meeting in this city, but New York and New Jersey have distinction of entertaining the athletes of the country that the metropolitan representatives of the Union held in order to give some other place a show. The opportunity came a day or two ago when the Boston Athletic Association wrote to the leading officials of the Union that it would be delighted to have the Union hold its annual meeting in their house. The date stipulated for the meeting is Feb. 11. The Boston A. A. U. has arranged to hold its open games on that date, and would be overjoyed if the delegates to the meeting would be their guests at the same time.
